CHANGE OF PASTORS AT METHODIST CHURCH.

Rev. C. E. Jameson returned Tuesday from the Northwest Texas Conference at Amarillo. He reports that his next charge will be at Snyder and will move to that little city Friday of this week. The new pastor here will be Rev. G. H. Gattis of Paducah, Tex. and we are informed that he will be here for the Sunday services, both morning and evening. Rev. Jameson speaks for the new man as being one of the best in the conference and that Hamlin people will be well pleased with his work services here.

Rev. Jameson has spent four years in this city in the service of his church. To say that he has done four years of exceedingly hard work is putting it mildly. And in doing those years of work, let us say that he did it with all the vim and energy that could be expected of any one. Rev. Jameson will carry to Snyder just four more years of valuable experience. His new people will find their pastor is gentle in his dealings with the noblest and most worthy undertakings of their community. They will find him ready and willing to shoulder more than his share of their burdens. He is a leader who fears no danger seen or unseen. He is no compromiser with things he believes and knows is wrong and harmful to his church and his community. He speaks square from the angle he sees that duty calls. In leaving Hamlin, he leaves more than a host of friends here, in his own church, in other churches and there are scores not in any church who will also wish him and his excellent wife and family a sojourn in Snyder marked with much success and all the joy and happiness possible. — Hamlin Herald.

HERMLEIGH MAN LOST $147 IN SWEETWATER YESTERDAY

While in the city Thursday seeing the circus, Clyde Mason of Hermleigh happened to the misfortune of losing $147 in cash. It was either lost from his hip pocket or some light fingered pick-pocket took it without being detected. Mr. Mason said he was in one of the cold drink stands late Thursday evening and while there he remembers that his pocket book was in his pocket, but shortly thereafter he missed the book and doubtless will never hear from it. If lost and is found and the man who finds it is honest, he will return it. If he's a thief he will keep it. There is no middle ground. — Sweetwater Reporter.

Don't be too hard, the world is full of honest folks. We have just recently found a $50 Bar Pin which was lost here, and just a short while back recovered $53 which was lost by a Hermleigh man. Try a LOST AND FOUND ADV FIRST.

W. M. CURRY, Editor.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 12th day of October, 1921.

KATE COTTEN, County Clerk, Scurry Co., Texas.

From Mr. Hardy, Amarillo, Tex. 10-12-21.

Dear boys:

Have been hitting the ball a week, nice easy job, though exacting, am reading after four machines. Wife and I have a nice, comfortable house, and await coming of housekeeping shipment. We will never forget our Snyder friends. Didn't get last Friday's Signal. Please mail me one right now. Can't afford to miss an issue.

Address us hereafter at 1004 Harrison Street. Will see Mr. Nichols and get Tribune going to you.

J. S. Hardy.

Mr. Buckner of Ellis county is here visiting his daughters.

A HAND ON YOUR SHOULDER.

When a man ain't got a cent,
And he's feelin' kind of blue,
And the clouds hang dark and heavy
An' won't let the sunshine through
It's a great thing, O my brethren,
Fer a feller just to lay
His hand upon your shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.

It makes a man feel curious,
It makes the tear drops start,
An' you sort o' feel a flutter
In the region of your heart!
You can look up and meet his eyes;
You don't know what to say
When his hand is on your shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.

Oh, th world's a curious compound
With its hony and its gall,
With its cars and bitter crosses—
But a good world after all.
An' a good God must have made it—
Leastways, that is what I say
When a hand is on my shoulder
In a friendly sort o' way.
—James Whitcomb Riley.

From Rev. Clyde Lee Fife.

Our work in the meetings is wonderfully blessed of the Lord. 26 additions first service Sunday morning. I think that as soon as we can finish our work in the east, we will return to our home in Snyder.

Give my regards to all the folks. Mrs. Fife and Junior join me in best wishes to you all.

Glad to know that markets, especially cotton is up again and trust that it holds for the entire winter season and believe that it will.

There are about four million men out of employment in this country and as winter has not hit heavily, there is little if any complaining.

But business men with whom I have visited are not worried at all for the coming season. In this opinion I concur.

My heart goes out to my dear boys, the Scouts, and I will be so happy to get back to them again and give Mr. King and the other helpers a lift. But I feel that they are abundantly equal to the task.

Yours faithfully,
Clyde Lee Fife

Hold-Ups Foiled Near Post by Farmer

Post, Texas, October 10.—Luther Hughes, a farmer was held up by three masked men three miles west of Post Sunday night.

Hughes was in a car. Crawling under one wheel he fired at the bandits, mortally wounding one.

Officers were immediately notified. They found no trace of the men, but this morning found the body of one man buried by the roadside. Diligent search is being made for the two escaped bandits.

The dead man is held at a local undertaking parlor. He has not been identified.

Mr. J. A. Green, engineer on the night shift at the power house, was painfully injured Monday night when he slipped and was struck by a projection on the fly wheel of one of the oil engines. He is getting along nicely and, barring complications, will soon be up and around.

Judge Horace Holley of Scurry County was in the city Sunday, the guest of friends as he was enroute to Fort Worth on business. — Sweetwater Reporter.

NOTICE IN PROBATE.

THE STATE OF TEXAS:
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Scurry County—Greeting:

You are Hereby Commanded to cause to be published once each week for a period of ten days before the return day hereof, in a newspaper of general circulation, which has been continuously and regularly published for a period of not less than one year in said Scurry county, a copy of the following notice:

THE ESTATE OF TEXAS:

To all persons interested in the Estate of Dr. J. W. Warren, deceased, Fannie B.
